Trading Key #6 Validity of Soul

When Karyn first hit the marketplace of New Age, everything felt foreign, like she was in the wrong place, yet she had an understanding and familiarity with this new market. Her professional background made it hard to fit into the home-made signs and banners, booths, or stalls. A new language was about to be birthed, things like clairvoyance (seeing), clairaudience (hearing), clairsentience (feeling), claircognizance (knowing), plus taste & smell, chakras, aura, celestial beings, light beings, etc. Especially when the Soul and the Spirit were never part of her everyday life. This Trading Key was composed prior to her total awareness of the actual purpose.
